Youth Spotlight

Youth group has made a very big impact on my life. I've always thought that forgiveness was the hardest thing to do and I thought after someone hurt you so much, you couldn't love them again. Going to youth group has shown me the love that Jesus shows us. We can commit so many sins and hurt Him so much, but, in the end, He forgives us and loves us no matter what. He even knew before He was crucified the sins we would commit, but because He loved all of us so much, He was still willing to be crucified on the cross. His love showed me that if He can forgive and still love all of us, I can forgive and love those who hurt me because it's never good to hate or hold grudges. God wants us to love one another and that's what I intend to do.

Church Humor

Pope Francis

On today's feast of St. Faustina, Pope Francis prayed that the "message of Merciful Jesus" would bear fruit in our lives, bringing us to a deeper union with God and leading us to live the works of mercy.

The Pope said that when he greeted the Polish pilgrims at the end of today's general audience.

"I cordially greet all the Polish people present here and in particular the ex-prisoners of the Auschwitz concentration camp," he said. "Today we commemorate St. Faustina Kowalska, who reminded the world that God is rich in mercy, and that His love is stronger than death, sin and all evil. May this message of Merciful Jesus, entrusted to her, bear fruit in our life with a deeper union with God and with the works of mercy. Entrusting ourselves and the difficult problems of the world to the Lord, let us repeat frequently: 'Jesus, I trust in you!' Praise be to Jesus Christ."

St Francis and St Therese

As is customary, the Holy Father concluded the general audience with greetings to various language groups.

Among the French speakers, he addressed in particular the priests of Nevers, with their bishop Brac de la Perrière, pilgrims from Rodez with Msgr. Fontlupt, the "travellers of hope" from Avignon and Marseille, and priests from Mechelen-Brussels and faithful from the dioceses of Tournai and Liège. "I commend you to the intercession of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Therese of Lisieux, to journey together courageously on the roads of holiness, in search of authentic fraternity among us. God bless you".

Among the German speakers, he mentioned pilgrims from the diocese of Mainz, and faithful from the parish of St. John the Baptist in Garrel, accompanied by Msgr. Timmerevers, and he gave special greetings to a group of young people participating in the Pontifical Swiss Guard Information Week, as well as several groups of students, such as those from the Anne Frank secondary school of Werne.

Finally, he greeted the Italians, starting with those from the Dioceses of Aosta and Ventimiglia-San Remo, accompanied by Bishop Franco Lovignana and Bishop Antonio Suetta, as well as Ambrosian pilgrims with Msgr. Mario Delphini. He expressed his hope that their jubilee pilgrimage strengthen their adhesion to Christ, for growing ecclesial effort in favour of diocesan and parish communities.

"I greet and encourage the priests of the Pontifical St. Paul Missionary College in Rome to further their theological studies. I also greet the Gloria Crucis group of the Lateran University, the faithful of Grottamare and of Vigevano, and I exhort them to live the Extraordinary Jubilee with faith, bearing witness to the works of corporal and spiritual mercy."

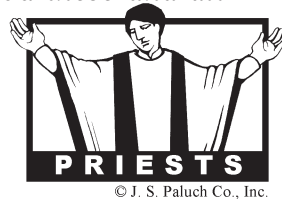

Similarly he greeted the Italian Institute of Donation, the association "Vivere da Sportivi," the Federation of Cynological Sports, students from the Oasis Madre Serafina schools in Rome and the Franciscans of Civita Castellana.
