Monthly Giving

Ever consider direct deposit or scheduled monthly credit card offerings?

As stewards of the many gifts God has given us do you ever think about the consistency of your offertory giving? The summer months are the most inconsistent in offertory collections. The biggest factor seems to be most of us are in the "Vacation Mode" as we certainly need the break from daily routine to refresh our spirits and strengthen/renew our family bonds.

One way you can remain consistent with your offertory giving is through direct deposits or even rack up mileage points for your next family vacation by setting up monthly credit card transactions.

This is how direct deposits work:

- You complete a "Direct Deposit Authorization" form (this gives us permission to debit your checking or savings account for the amount and on the date you specify)
- We make withdrawals on the 2nd and 16th of each month (when the 2nd or 16th falls on a weekend or banking holiday the withdrawal will occur the next banking day)
- You determine the amount and frequency of your donations

For credit card donations:

- You simply fill out your information on the parish website and the amount you would like to give monthly and you are all set.

To obtain a "Direct Deposit Authorization" form or to setup a monthly credit card donation visit stjoerayne.org/giving

“Hello, Summer!” doesn’t mean “goodbye, faith.”

Ahhh, summer. Such a glorious time for no homework, no exams, sunshine every day, soaking in the vitamin D, and going on vacations. Many of us bask in the fact that the summer season offers less responsibility and more of a social life. There’s time to spend with friends and just relax! So, you totally spend more time with Jesus over the summer, right?

So many of us complain about not being able to attend youth group or even attend mass as we’d like due to our crazy schedules during the school year. First of all, God must always come first and a life void of practicing our faith is not really a life worth living at all, now is it?

I digress. Regardless, summer should be the time that we rejoice in the fact that we have an abundance of time to dedicate to celebrating our faith, yet we see a decrease in attendance at Sunday masses? How does that even add up?

So you’re away at vacation! That is a perfect explanation! So what Catholic church are you attending while you’re away?

Yep, that’s right. You actually CAN find and attend Catholic churches elsewhere and still spend time with Jesus on vacation! Going to Destin? Visit Corpus Christi Catholic Church! Going to Gulf Shores? Visit Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church! Going to London? Visit St. James’s Roman Catholic Church! Paris? There’s a St. Joseph’s Catholic Church there! Rome? Go to the actual Vatican! I’m sure you see where this is going.

Summer vacation is a luxury that none of us are entitled to. Be sure to not only fulfill your weekly obligation of keeping the Sabbath day, but take the time to truly thank God for all of your blessings and the ability to do such wonderful things.

All churches noted here were gathered through a quick search. Seriously, no matter where you’re going, just Google it.*

RCE Asks: Did You Know?

The Catholic Church was really the one to invent hospitals as we know them today. Early hospitals were called basiliads - named for St. Basil - due to his efforts to establish health care centers all over the Roman empire.
