SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

We welcome those who entered our Catholic faith through the waters of Baptism:

Amelia May LeBlanc

Thank you to our family at St. Joseph Parish

It is with a sense of awe and humility that we express our heartfelt thanks to the St. Joseph Parish family for the prayers and wonderful outpouring of support you have shown us, as well as Shawn and Peggy during our Diaconate formation. Your acceptance of the ministry of the Diaconate and of us as Deacons speaks well of your ability to love as Jesus loves and we are truly blessed and touched by your kindness!

Our prayer is that God will use this ministry in a way that will inspire you to be of service to others for His greater honor and glory.

*Your brothers in Christ,
Deacon Denis and Deacon Tommy*

Music Ministry by "State of Grace"

Praise, Teaching, & Personal Ministry Time !

God allows sufferings and trials so that we can mature in our spiritual life and our personal relationship with Him.

*The secular and spiritual battles that are raging in our world today cannot wait for us to be in full maturity to "wage war against evil". It is in going through the battles that we grow towards that maturity!
We are in battle!*

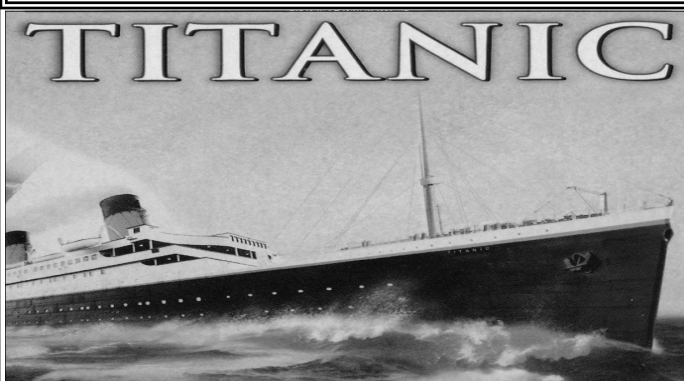

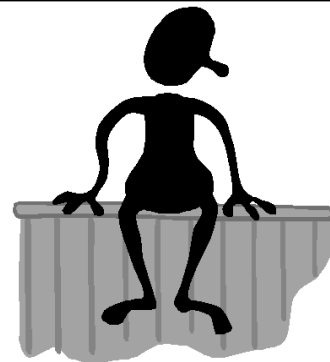

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Christians must openly declare their allegiance or their non-allegiance to Christ.

The story of the disciples who had to choose is repeating itself today among us. Peter, for the other disciples, openly declared himself for Jesus. It is time we did likewise and stopped fooling around. If ever there was a time when humanity needed followers of Christ and fewer fence-sitters, that time is now.

To be a Christian means to live in such a faith, in such commitment to Christ, that it will revolutionize, turn upside down not only our lives but the lives of others.

To be a Christian means to incarnate, actualize, literally implement the teachings of the gospel. It means preaching the gospel with one's life. This alone would be a revolution.

This year marks the centenary of the sinking of the Titanic in 1912. In Washington, there is a monument to remember the men who gave their lives so that women and children could have the lifeboats.

Every year the tuxedo-clad members of the Men's Titanic Society gather at the monument around midnight to drink a champagne toast to the memory of the brave men who sacrificed themselves in the frigid waters on that fateful night.

Jesus tells his disciples, "For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake, and for the sake of the Gospel, will save it."

We may wonder if we have the courage to follow this teaching. Perhaps when the moment confronts us, there will rise within us an unknown power to make the hard decision.

In his book The Power of Myth, the late Joseph Campbell said, "People who risk their lives to save others demonstrate a breakthrough of the metaphorical realization that they and the other are one... the true reality is in the unity with all life."

FAITH TO DEEDS

In today's second reading James compares dead faith with active faith. If we see people who are starving and cold, he says, a Christian does not just wish them well, but helps them.

Mark and Isabel decided to apply this in their own family.

Isabel said, "We go to Mass every Sunday, we pray together at home, and we do things in our parish, but what else can we do to show people who have no job or home that Jesus loves them?"

The children decided to save half of their pocket money and their parents would match the amount. At the end of a month they decided to help a shelter for homeless families trying to regain independence.

The director thanked them and introduced them to some resident families.

On the way home the younger son said, "They were really nice people.

Can we go on helping them?"

"Yes," said Isabel. "We've only just begun."

Adam was spending the day naming all the creatures in the garden when he realized he was alone as a human being.

Then came the very last creature and he named it "frog."

He spoke to the frog in his loneliness and asked it if it had any ideas as to how he could not be so lonely.

*To Adam's surprise, the frog opened it's mouth and replied,
"Rib-it!"*

The rest is history....
