PARISH LIFE

MEDICAL ETHICS AND SENIOR CONCERNS SEMINAR

Presented by: Ryan Verret, Director of the Louisiana Right to Life & Center for Medical Ethics
Monday, October 22nd at 7:00 PM in the St. Joseph Family Life Center.

The Center for Medical Ethics is here to help you protect your life. We must redouble our efforts to protect the elderly and those with disabilities. Louisiana Right to Life, through the Center for Medical Ethics, will continue working to ensure that they are not dismissed by some "quality of Life" standard which dictates that some lives are less worthy than others.

It is critically important that we, our friends and family members fill out a "Will to Live." Protect yourself and your family today! Since its inception, the Louisiana Right to Life Foundation has been equally concerned with protecting older people and people with disabilities from the denial of lifesaving medical treatment. They are working to protect lives by answering the questions that people ask about the Ethics of End of Life Care. Through public education and proactive legislation we can encourage a life-affirming medical ethic at all stages of life and mount opposition to the culture of death.

Please plan to join us for this informative discussion.

AREA HAPPENINGS

Bishop's Services Appeal

In the letter of James, we are told, "Faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead." (Jas 2:17) Good works can take many forms. If for some reason you are unable to support the Bishop's Services Appeal with a donation, please contribute by praying for the Appeals success.

There are a number of priorities facing our Diocesan Church that no one parish alone can address. Some require the strength and resolve of our entire Catholic Community working and sacrificing together as One Body. That is why every parish participates in the Bishop's Services Appeal, so that united in our collective efforts, we can build the Father's Kingdom by advancing the work of the Church. Please respond to Bishop Jarrell's letter by using a pledge envelope found here in church or by giving online @ www.diolaf.org (click online giving) or by calling 261-5641. Thank You

A New Kind of Politics

Unfortunately, politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the vulnerable. As Catholics, we should be guided more by our moral convictions than by our attachment to a political party or interest group. Our participation should help transform the party to which we belong; we should not let the party neglect fundamental moral truths. We are called to bring together our principles, the political choices, values and our votes, to help build a better world.

U. S. Bishops

THE BARRIERS THAT SEPARATE US

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban. It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But—in truth—it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion. Today’s readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God. And so we are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ.

Using beads for prayer and meditation is an ancient custom, found in many cultures and religions. The Christian rosary dates from the twelfth century, when it provided a way for ordinary Christians to learn about the lives of Jesus and Mary. Alan de la Roche, a fifteenth-century Dominican, preferred “Psalter of Our Lady” to “rosary.” This fitting name recalls an explanation of the devotion’s origin. Unable to read the one hundred fifty psalms that formed the Church’s “official” daily prayer, medieval Christians substituted first one hundred fifty Pater Nosters, and later one hundred fifty Ave Marias. By meditating on the various mysteries of the rosary while repeating these simple prayers, the faithful could immerse themselves in the whole mystery of the Incarnation & Resurrection.

The dedication of October to the Blessed Virgin Mary is an appropriate reminder of this venerable form of prayer. Faithful Christians everywhere continue to meditate on the mysteries of the rosary, praying in groups or alone. Why not take advantage of this season to renew your acquaintance with the rosary?
