God's Treasure in Clay Vessels

Humility means recognizing that our call and all the gifts to achieve it are from God. God often chooses weak instruments. The Lord came into Jerusalem on an ass. He can ride into New York and London and down the middle aisle of any cathedral in a human nature that is not much better. He is always asking people to loan him something, for we creatures cannot give; all that we are belongs to Him. He borrowed a crib in which to be born; He borrowed Peter's boat in which to preach; He borrowed the sponge of a soldier to slake His thirst; He borrowed the spear of a Roman centurion to reveal His loving heart. Why, therefore, should he not take a loan on me - this lump of clay - and put a treasure in it?

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

THE FACE OF JESUS

In all the readings for this Sunday we can look at the face of Jesus.

There are two Gospel passages, both from the Gospel of Luke. The first tells of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey. Crowds greeted him with shouts of "Hosanna!"

The second tells of Jesus' departure from Jerusalem, carrying the cross on his back. The same crowds derided him and shouted for his crucifixion. We first see a face shining with glory, but in a few short days a face dark with blood and sorrow. Set between these two contrasting Gospel passages are equally contrasting readings from the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures. Isaiah describes a suffering servant who willingly submits to beating and humiliation, not even turning away his face. He knows he belongs to God and will not be put to shame. Paul writes to the Philippians of Christ Jesus, the true Suffering Servant, who willingly emptied himself to become human. But this man, with a very human face, has now been exalted by God above all others.

Chrism Mass

Later this week, the Chrism Mass is celebrated in every cathedral in the world in preparation for the Easter Triduum. Only a bishop can consecrate chrism, pure olive oil infused with rich fragrance, so this liturgy is a sign of the unity of the local Church and the bishop's ministry to all who will be baptized and confirmed in our parishes in the coming year.

Chrism is also used in the ordination of priests and bishops and the consecration of new altars. Two other sacramental oils, the unscented olive oil for catechumens and for the sick, will be blessed in the same liturgy and transported carefully to every parish by the beginning of the Triduum.

Remember when Noah's dove returned with the sign of the world's rebirth? The dove carried an olive branch, a pledge that God was breathing the world to life again. Yet olives require human nurture. Olives are inedible unless they are cured by human labor. Olive trees grow on sunny slopes, away from the shade of city walls, so they can only be properly tended, cured, and laboriously pressed in peace time. The Chrism Mass with its olive oils expresses God's deepest desires for us, and our resolve to place our lives in service to God's saving, healing, loving plan.

*One little girl said to the other,
"What do you think about all of this Satan stuff?"
The other little girl replied,
"You remember
how Santa Clause turned out.
Well, I figure it's probably just daddy."*
