Chaplet of Divine Mercy

In 1933, Our Lord spoke to St. Faustina, gave her a striking vision of His Mercy and taught her to say this prayer on ordinary rosary beads:

1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, then 1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary and The Apostles Creed.
2. *On the "Our Father" beads say the following words:
"Eternal Father, I offer You the Body, Blood, Soul & Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."*
3. *On the ten "Hail Mary" beads say the following words:
"For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion have Mercy on us and on the whole world."*
4. Repeat steps 2 and 3 for all five decades.
5. *Conclude with the following words, said three times:
"Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."*

Jesus later said to St. Faustina, "Say unceasingly this Chaplet that I have taught you. Anyone who recites it will receive Great Mercy at the hour of death. Priests will recommend it to sinners as the last hope. Even the most hardened sinner, if he recites this Chaplet even once, will receive grace from My Infinite Mercy."

I want the whole world to know My Infinite Mercy.

I want to give unimaginable graces to those who trust in My Mercy."

Sunday in White

An ancient title for this Sunday is Dominica in Albis, or "Sunday in White." During the Easter Vigil, the newly baptized are invested with a white garment, a sign that they have put on Christ. At one time, the garments were worn for a full week of celebration and reflection, and on this Sunday the newly baptized would appear in their robes again in their new place among the faithful for Eucharist.

In later centuries, the energy of new life at Easter was largely forgotten, and this Sunday was renamed "Quasimodo Sunday," or "Low Sunday."

In recent years, with the recovery of the insight that Easter is the privileged time for celebrating and renewing baptism, there is nothing "Low" about this Sunday. At a week's distance, the beauty and grace of our Easter celebration is sustained by joyful alleluias, the blessing and sprinkling of holy water, and the comfort of the Lord's presence to us.

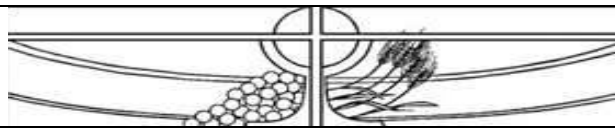

He is risen, and
he summons us together,
opening up the scriptures for us,
breaking the bread, filling us with new life.
