St. Joseph Parish Assists Victims

in Oklahoma and the Midwest

All of us are aware of the widespread devastation and human suffering caused by the tornados which struck in the Midwest and destroyed much of Moore, Oklahoma. Our hearts and prayers go out to all of the victims.

In response to this devastation, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, president of the USCCB, has called for a special collection for victims of the storm. Proceeds will go toward aid to the victims and the restoration of Church properties, from this storm and others which may occur this year.

St. Joseph Parish will take up a special collection at all Masses

Vocation Supper for Young Women

Thursday, June 20, 2013 at 6:30 P. M.
at Bishop Michael Jarrell's Residence

Please contact the Diocese of Lafayette, Director of Vocations at #261-5690 to register.
Deadline to register is June 17, 2013.

It is customary that the pastor, a deacon, or a religious accompany the candidate(s) to the Vocation Supper. A sponsoring pastor/deacon/religious may bring one or two candidates. If the young person is under the age of 18 and is the only candidate sponsored by that person, then a parent (or other family member over the age of 18) must also attend the Vocation Supper. Space is limited to fifteen, so please register early.

"Saving America"

St. Charles Retreat Center

2151 Sam Houston Jones Pkwy, Lake Charles

Tuesday, July 16, 2013

6:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Join Sister Diane Depwe for this evening event. Jesus teaches us how to stand-up to the leaders of our society regarding the morals and values as Christians and as an "American." Today we are called as Christians to be informed and equipped to stand in the "Gap." This requires that we move from complacency and apathy to being involved to make a difference. Remember, the last four letters of American is "I can"! Each time this retreat is give all new information is unveiled.

Call the Center at #337-855-1232 to register or visit www.stcharlescenter.com. Please register by July 12th so that adequate arrangements can be made for dinner. The suggested donation is $20.00 per person.

From Strangers to Guests

Hospitality is one of the richest biblical terms, which can deepen and broaden our insight into our relationships to our fellow human beings. Old and New Testament stories not only show how serious our obligation is to welcome the stranger into our home, but they also tell us that guests are carrying precious gifts with them, which they are eager to reveal to a receptive host. When the widow of Zarephath offered food and shelter to Elijah, he revealed himself as a man of God offering her an abundance of oil and meal and raising her son from the dead (I Kings 17:9-24). When hostility is converted into hospitality, then fearful strangers can become guests, revealing to their hosts the promise they are carrying with them.

Henri J. M. Nouwen

“You changed my mourning into dancing; O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.”

Treasures from our Tradition

Today we return to using the green vestments of Ordinary Time on Sundays. Changing colors give a sense of the progress of faith through the seasons of life. For centuries, the number of colors and the reasons underlying them were left to local custom.

Over time, we settled on six colors to express the character of a day or season: white, red, green, violet, black, and rose. Black is seldom seen these days, replaced by white or violet. Rose, really a dusty pink shade, appears at most twice a year. What does the color green suggest to you? Green is new growth, olives, evergreens, glistening emeralds, ripening pears, and fields at high summer. It suggests renewal, healing, fertility, peace, and harmony. In medieval Europe, green was the favorite color for brides! Did you know that drivers of green cars are the least likely to be stopped for speeding? Is it because of their own feelings of harmony and well being, or because law enforcement officers are filled with serenity when they see a green car whiz by? Take out a paint chart today and marvel at the many hues and names of green.

The Church figured it out centuries ago: color really matters.

*“Christians should have courage to do great things,
But at the same time,*

The humility to appreciate the little things.”

*~ Pope Francis 9 ~
Sermon of 4/25/13*

Reflecting on God’s Word

Two remarkable stories are told in today’s first reading from the first book of Kings and in the Gospel of Saint Luke. In the first reading, Elijah visits the house of a widow. Her son falls sick during his visit and eventually stops breathing. Elijah prays to God and breath returns to the child’s body, whereupon Elijah returns the boy to his mother. In the Gospel, we hear the remarkable story of the son of another widow. But in this instance, the widow’s son is already dead and his remains are in a coffin. This is one of those miracles that draws us in so vividly. Can you even imagine being one of the people standing near the coffin when the young man sits up and begins to speak after Jesus bids him arise? In a striking parallel to the first reading, Jesus gives the young man back to his mother. The people, we are told, are seized with fear. The next thing they do is glorify God.

In our everyday lives, we are most likely not going to experience the raising of a dead person back to life. Yet there are times when the Lord looks at us, helps us recognize our sinfulness or the ways that we prevent life from being lived to the fullest, and says, “I tell you, arise!” (Luke 7:14). A miracle of transformation can occur when we recognize the power of God’s love and mercy. Let our response be a prayer of praise and thanks as we glorify God.
