Day of Reflection on Lectio Divina

August 17, 2013 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

St. Charles Retreat Center

2151 Sam Houston Jones Parkway, Lake Charles

Join Fr. Whitney Miller, Keith Faul & Paula Hunter for this Day of Reflection.

Lectio Divina is the classical monastic practice of praying with scripture, allowing the work of God to penetrate our hearts and lead us to grow in heart-to-heart intimacy with God.

Lectio Divina is a source of deep spiritual growth for all of God's people. Pope Benedict XVI states in "Verbum Domini" that Lectio Divina is truly capable of opening up to the faithful the treasures of God's word, and also of bringing about an encounter with Christ, the living word of God.

The diligent reading of scripture accompanied by prayer brings about the intimate dialog in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to God with trusting openness of heart.

Come and experience the spirit of the living word.

Call the Center at 337-855-1232 to register or visit www.stcharlescenter.com

Reflecting on God's Word

Robert Fulghum tells the story of a troubled man who paid a visit to his rabbi. He had experienced a great deal of failure in his life and didn't feel that he had what it takes to accomplish his dreams. After listening to the man's tale of woe, the rabbi instructed him to seek out page thirty of the New York Times Almanac. That would be of help.

Following that instruction, he found that the almanac entry was a list of the top hitters in the annals of baseball, with Ty Cobb leading the pack with a .376 batting average. Puzzled as to how that applied to his problem, he returned to the rabbi for an explanation. The rabbi explained that that page of Hall of Fame hitters represented people who in essence failed about seven out of every ten times at bat.

So if he thought his track record of failure was a problem, he needed to think again. The many failures put him in league with some of the greatest hitters baseball had ever known.

—Rev. Richard Zajac

Cultivating the Peace of Christ

*Jesus' disciples are sent forth with instructions to begin each pastoral visit with a blessing:
"Peace to this household."*

They are then informed that the gift of peace will only rest upon those who are already peaceable. This teaching sounds odd at first, but further reflection confirms its wisdom. The seeds of God's greatest gifts - healing, mercy, forgiveness, hope and peace - are already planted within us. At times we overlook, reject, or squander these gifts rather than cultivating them. As we harbor anger, live selfishly, or injure others, we waste the baptismal water that nurtures grace. In the liturgy we pray that the Lord may "grant us peace."

Yet, we must also grant God's peace to ourselves if the peace of Christ is to reign in our hearts.

The harvest is plentiful,
BUT THE LABORERS
ARE FEW.
