STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

By now just about all of summer has been unwrapped and spent. As the season drains away and summer's light dims, so too grows the realization that the busy work of life must soon be taken up in earnest once more. Once more the realization returns that life calls us seriously to particular autumn cares. No matter how fearful or challenging, each of us must follow that inner voice or else sense that life will have become less.

Such was the story of Jeremiah, who found himself prophet to the Hebrew people. He sensed an inner call to speak God's word against the nation's political alliances and against the king's penchant to trust in military machines. As a result Jeremiah found himself tossed into a well. Yet he remained committed.

It is also the story of Jesus, who came with truth as a walking stick and the kingdom as seeds of life to be scattered and sown. He also knew full well that few would walk where he would walk or choose to feed on what he would sow. Yet he would not back away from what he was about.

Such a willingness to stretch ourselves into the unknown is part of that mysterious list of things that make us human. At such times we walk in the shadow of Jesus as he leads us into new ways of being human. Seldom, if ever, is it without struggle or even pain, yet it is then that we begin to gain a fuller sense of who we truly are, and it is then that through us God brings the world to something new.

Gracious God,
as the summer begins to fade,
new possibilities lie on the horizon.

Bless all of those who are beginning or returning to their roles as teachers and catechists as well as those who lead and support them in their efforts.
May this school year be a time of grace and potential as they teach, share,
and challenge others to grow in faith,
knowledge, and wisdom.

Bless children and youth, along with their parents, as they begin a new school year.
May their minds be open to learning and to the wonder of discovery and insight.

Be with us all as we embark on this new year.
Amen.

Where Is Christ To Be Found

When you are rich, when you have friends, or when you are a member of a respected group, you are never really oppressed. When in difficulty, simply make a telephone call and everything is fixed. When you have no friends, when you are an immigrant and you speak the language badly, you are quickly oppressed, for you cannot defend yourself. You can be sure that the first question that is always brought up when one is talking with people who are worried about faith in Jesus is the question of finances. Who has the money? What image am I giving of Jesus and of his mystical body? Isn't it a terrible thing that the Poor One, the Crucified One, is thought to be with those who have surrounded themselves with comfort?

*Fr. Tom wired all of the church pews with electricity.
 During his homily the following Sunday he said,
 "Everyone who is willing to give $100 toward building the new program center, please stand up."
 Then he pushed a button and 20 people stood up.
 "Fine, that's fine," said Fr. Tom.
 "Now everyone who will give $500, stand up."
 He touched another button and 20 more jumped to their feet.
 "That's excellent," he shouted.
 "Now all who will give $1,000, stand up."
 Then he threw the master switch and electrocuted all four Deacons.*
