With a gift in your Will, called a bequest,

*you can give a percentage of your estate or certain amount of cash, securities or property to the Church.
There are two key benefits to setting up a gift through a will.*

- You can be flexible in your commitment.

Most people don't know what the exact size of their estate will be, so making a gift to the church using a percentage can be a more appropriate way to divide your assets. It enables you to serve the Lord and at the same time benefit your loved ones in a relative proportion.

- You have the ability to update or revoke your gift at any time.

Because you retain your assets, you don't need to worry that your own needs, and those of your family, won't be met. It allows you to benefit from your generosity without any concerns about living expenses, medical costs or loved ones.

For more information about planned giving, contact Fr. Kendal at 334-2193.

Our faith community remembers in prayer:

Mona S. Zaunbrecher and Effie P. Thibodeaux

*We pray that they will find joy and peace in the Lord's presence.
We extend our sincere sympathy to their

"If the investments in the banks fall slightly... it is a tragedy...
what can be done?"

But if people die of hunger,
if they have nothing to eat,
if they have poor health, then it does not matter!
This is our crisis today!"

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

See Others As God Sees Them

Several summers ago I was recovering from surgery on my vocal cords and couldn't speak. Out walking one hot Sunday afternoon, I began to panic because I had run out of water.

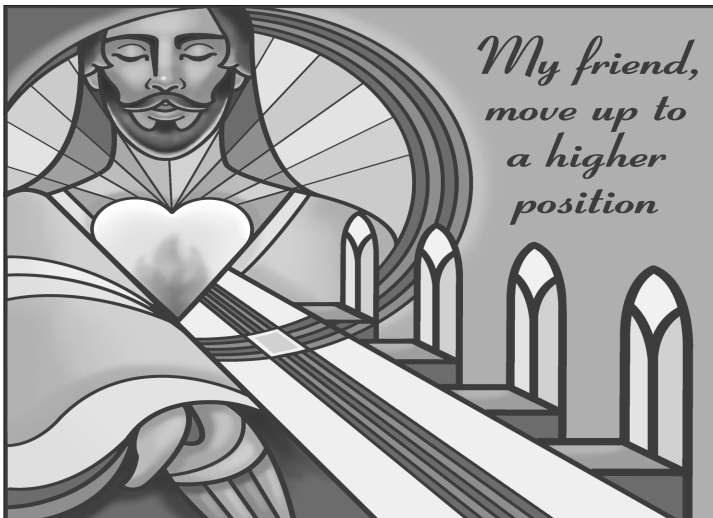

I was relieved to come upon a picnic being held on the lawn of a church, and motioned to my empty water bottle. All these years later, I'm still stunned by their reaction. No one made eye contact with me.

No one went to get water.

But I'm a SOMEBODY, I thought, but blessedly couldn't say.

When people come into our churches without resumes, without connections, they hope that someone will notice them and reach out.

The "lowest" are SOMEBODIES to God, as those of us who have often been "highest" will surely one day find out.

HUMILITY

Today's reading from Sirach celebrates what will become the theme of today's Gospel: humility. Pride causes us to demand from others an exalted estimate of our status, but humility allows us to see things more clearly. It allows us a broader perspective. Humility promises us the favor of God and the love of those who know us.

The second reading is a study in contrasts: the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai and the giving of salvation on Mount Zion. The Law's appearance is greeted with solemnity, mystery, even fear. But Christians are not to be afraid. Coming to God's mountain with Jesus, "the mediator of a new covenant," is a happy, exuberant experience.

The parable in today's Gospel concerns the danger of pride and the necessity of humility. The banquet setting, often used by Jesus, is a symbol of heaven's abundance and of the fulfillment of God's promise. The parable is not simply good advice on how to avoid embarrassment; it is about salvation.

Litany of Humility

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,

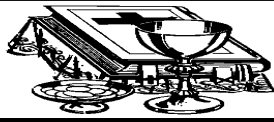

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being loved....."
 From the desire of being extolled....."
 From the desire of being honored....."
 From the desire of being praised....."
 From the desire of being preferred to others....."
 From the desire of being consulted....."
 From the desire of being approved....."
 From the fear of being humiliated....."
 From the fear of being despised....."
 From the fear of suffering rebukes....."
 From the fear of being calumniated....."
 From the fear of being forgotten....."
 From the fear of being ridiculed....."
 From the fear of being wronged....."
 From the fear of being suspected....."

That others may be loved more than I,

Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I....."
 That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease....."
 That others may be chosen and I set aside....."
 That others may be praised and I unnoticed....."
 That others may be preferred to me in everything....."
 That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should....."

*A Mom was watching her four-year old son playing outside in his small plastic pool that was half filled with water.
He was happily walking back and forth across the pool, making big splashes.*

Suddenly, he stopped, stepped out of the water, and began scooping water out of the pool with a pail.

*"Why are you taking the water out of your pool, Timmy?" asked the mother.
"Cause my teacher said Jesus walked on water," replied Timmy.*

"And this water just doesn't work."
