WILL YOUR WISHES BE KNOWN?

A bequest to St. Joseph Parish, Rayne Catholic Elementary or Notre Dame High School affords a way for you to express specific philanthropic wishes.

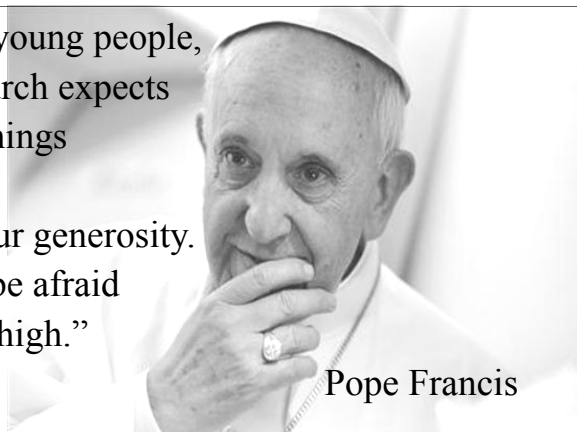

A bequest may be made by naming a specific dollar amount, a percentage of the estate or specific assets.

The spirit is given a voice when wishes are expressed in a Will.

While many may think philanthropy is reserved for a select few, the truth is that every bequest makes a mark that will last throughout history.

Please pray for guidance when planning your estate.

“Dear young people,
the church expects great things
of you and your generosity.
Don’t be afraid to aim high.”

THE FATHER'S BELOVED CHILDREN

Neither of the young men in the parable had lived long enough to know about giving or receiving mercy. However, after suffering separation in their own unique ways, they were each offered a unique return from isolation into the family fold. With no conditions, the love figure at “home” blesses each of the children with forgiveness, mercy and unconditional welcome.

Let us be aware of small gestures of love offered us by others that remind us of our unique beauty. Let us try to gratefully accept the smile, the tender word, the caring embrace, and the recognition that affirms our personhood. These are reminders of the overwhelming reception awaiting our every return to communion with God's Spirit, and that mercy is always available and always confirming the truth of our belovedness.

Reflecting on God's Word

Writing, it seems, is mostly about waiting, though most of us tend to think of it as a pen-in-hand sort of thing, or a fingers-on-the-keyboard activity. Eventually it does come to that, but much of the time before can be spent waiting. Some would say it's waiting for the muse to show, or imagination to kick in, or for the idea to float free.

Anyone who has ever tried to do some writing—a description of what it's like to fall in love or a piece of poetry or an attempt to share the meandering path of a soul's journey—knows that such writing takes a great deal of waiting before it can happen, if indeed it ever happens at all. And sometimes when it does happen, it feels more like being found than it does like succeeding.

Many of the inner pieces of our lives seem to be like that. Discovering one's calling, falling in love, faith and the conversion that gives rise to it, recognizing the gifts sewn into the hems and cuffs of our lives—they all seem to find us rather than the other way around.

Sometimes it's even in spite of our own efforts. Sometimes they feel like the very work and intention of the Divine One.

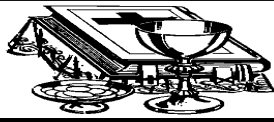

The scriptures are filled with stories of God doing the finding, even when we didn't know we'd been lost. That's the way it is with us and God—so often being found without even asking.

—Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

LAVISH FORGIVENESS

Moses appeals to God for compassion in today's first reading. The point of Moses' pleas is not to provide a blueprint for pacifying an angry God, but to demonstrate that no matter our sin and its grievousness, God will always forgive.

In his Letter to Timothy, Paul uses himself, the great sinner, as an example of just how great is God's forgiveness. Finally, today's Gospel parables create a mural of God's forgiving love. Like a diligent housekeeper, a good shepherd, a loving father, God goes out of the way to recover the lost and to forgive. By pointing out that the woman leaves her nine silver pieces, that the shepherd leaves his ninety-nine sheep waiting, and the father leaves his elder son upset, Jesus urges us to abandon a stingy view of life. If God can be so generous, so forgiving, and so loving to those deemed unworthy, we must act likewise.

Where do we come from?

A little girl asked her mother,
"Mom, where do people come from?"

"Well," said her mother, "God made Adam and Eve and they had children and that's how all mankind was made."

A couple of days later she asked her father the same question.

"Many years ago there were monkeys," replied her father, "and the human race evolved from them."

The confused little girl returned to her mother and said, "Mommy, how is it possible that you told me that we were created by God and Daddy said we came from monkeys?"

"Well, dear, it's very simple," explained the mother,
"I told you about my side of the family and your father told you about his."
