Perpetual Lamp

in our sanctuary burns constantly to proclaim the real presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Tabernacle. This week we dedicate the flame to: Mr. & Mrs. Bradley Breaux, Curless Arabie family and Leland & Hilda Hebert

Please pray for a Priest each day

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

WILL YOUR WISHES BE KNOWN?

A bequest to St. Joseph Parish, Rayne Catholic Elementary or Notre Dame High School affords a way for you to express specific philanthropic wishes. A bequest may be made by naming a specific dollar amount, a percentage of the estate or specific assets.

The spirit is given a voice when wishes are expressed in a Will.

While many may think philanthropy is reserved for a select few, the truth is that every bequest makes a mark that will last throughout history. Please pray for guidance when planning your estate.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

We welcome those who entered our Catholic faith through the waters of Baptism:

Eleanor Louise Leonards and Grace Marie Fontenot

RECENTLY DEPARTED

Our faith community remembers in prayer:

Marjorie Hains McCarty, Olivia L. Credeur and Percy J. Leger

We pray that they will find joy and peace in the Lord's presence. We extend our sincere sympathy to their families and friends.

With Deepest Sympathy

Rejecting Market Worship

We live in a culture that worships the marketplace. There is a distinction here between respecting the market and understanding its place in our economy—and worshipping it. Market worship is the most prevalent form of idolatry in our culture today. And unfortunately, we have allowed these market values to virtually trump all our religious values, some times even in the lives of our parishes. How often do we go through life sorting other human beings into market categories? How often do we forget the holy and inherent worth of all we encounter? Opening our eyes to the ways each of us has unwittingly internalized the values of the market can be shocking and painful, but it helps in our journey to build an economy based on Gospel values.

ONE WHO IS FAITHFUL
IN A VERY LITTLE IS ALSO FAITHFUL IN MUCH,
AND ONE WHO IS DISHONEST
IN A VERY LITTLE IS ALSO DISHONEST IN MUCH.

LUKE 16:10

*“How will we ever have unity among Christians
if we are not capable of having it among us Catholics, ...in the family,
how many families
fight and split up?
Seek unity,
unity builds the Church and comes from Jesus Christ.
He sends us
the Holy Spirit to build unity!”*

When Jacob Marley appears to Ebenezer Scrooge at the beginning of A Christmas Carol, he wears a long chain, clasped around his middle, “made of cash-boxes, keys, padlocks, ledgers, deeds, and heavy purses wrought in steel.” He tells Scrooge that he wears the chain he forged in life, and now he wanders the earth because in life his spirit never went beyond “the narrow limits of our money-changing hole.”

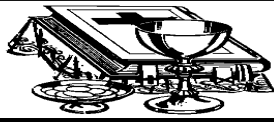

Old Marley’s life had been about money until it ended; now he pays the price.

Luke calls on his community to consider its use of money. In today’s parable a steward has been caught squandering his master’s property. Seeing that his days are numbered, the steward acts quickly to ensure that he will have friends at the end. Surprisingly, the master commends him for “acting prudently.” Jesus then comments that the children of this world have more gumption than the children of light, using their money to make friends.

Three other comments follow: Use money to make friends for eternity; trustworthiness in small matters and earthly wealth will lead to being trusted with true wealth, i.e. God’s kingdom; and you have to choose between God and “mammon” (whatever holds your deepest trust other than God). In a nutshell, use your money to serve; allow God to save.

Jesus is in line with the prophet Amos, who castigates the businessmen of his day for cheating the poor and needy. God is on the side of these little ones. They are the ones we are to befriend by using our money for their good. Jesus, who came as a “ransom for all” (1 Timothy 2:4), is our true wealth.

—James A. Wallace, C.S.S.R.

When I Grow Up

After Mass one Sunday morning,
a young boy suddenly announced to his mother,
"Mom, I've decided to become a priest when I grow up."
"Why honey, that's great!
But what made you decide all of a sudden?" said his mom.
"Well," said the little boy, "Since I have to go to Mass every Sunday anyway,
I figure it will be more fun to stand up front and yell, than to have to sit and listen."
