Perpetual Lamp

in our sanctuary burns constantly to proclaim the real presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Tabernacle. This week we dedicate the flame to:

Donwid Deville, Hannah E. Paley & Jody D. Constantine

Please pray for a Priest each day

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

*“What God has joined together, let no man separate.”
Mark 10:9*

WILL YOUR WISHES BE KNOWN?

A bequest to St. Joseph Parish, Rayne Catholic Elementary or Notre Dame High School affords a way for you to express specific philanthropic wishes. A bequest may be made by naming a specific dollar amount, a percentage of the estate or specific assets.

The spirit is given a voice when wishes are expressed in a Will.

While many may think philanthropy is reserved for a select few, the truth is that every bequest makes a mark that will last throughout history. Please pray for guidance when planning your estate.

RECENTLY DEPARTED

Our faith community remembers in prayer:

James Ray Navarre,
Eddie Privat &
Bennett Richard

We pray that they will find joy & peace in the Lord's presence. We extend our sincere sympathy to their families and friends.

Bishop's Services Appeal 40th Anniversary Shine the light of Christ

Today is Commitment Sunday. Your generous Pledges to the Bishop's Services Appeal will be placed in the service of Jesus Christ. The BSA is the most effective and efficient way to meet the needs of the multitudes.

Our parish goal for this year is to unite as a parish and have every family and individual participate to the very best of their ability, in recognition and in thanksgiving for God's many blessings.

All registered parishioners should have received a special letter from Bishop Jarrell requesting a personal commitment and a pledge. If you have already responded in the spirit of stewardship and discipleship, fervent thanks and blessings are yours. If not, please do so, by using a pledge envelope or by giving online @ www.diola.org or calling #261-5641.

May the Lord bless you on the day of your birth and fill your life with much happiness.

“Every unborn child, though unjustly condemned to be aborted, has the face of the Lord, who even before his birth, and then as soon as he was born, experienced the rejection of the world. . . . They must not be thrown away!”

The word of God is not chained

There is no chaining the word of God! But how many times do we attempt to do that very thing? Had the followers of Jesus or the teachers of the law or the Pharisees been asked if the lepers should be cleansed or healed, the answer would most likely have been, “No, they deserve their condition.”

The lepers would have been, perhaps, a mixed group, Galileans and Samaritans alike, the bond of their awful disease overcoming the pettiness of former religious bickering. Jesus’ actions once again illustrate his vocation and ours: to reach out when healing is needed, to challenge when conversion is needed, to console when comfort is needed. He also follows his own advice from last week’s Gospel: do what you have been commanded to do. When the cleansed Samaritan has returned to give thanks, Jesus does not take it as an opportunity for self-aggrandizement, but rather offers insight into faith.

Thanks be to God!

When Jan’s son and his buddies were given two weeks’ notice to move out of their house, Jan proposed that they throw a cleaning/moving party. She provided the food, drinks, and cleaning supplies. They provided the music and the muscle. The party was a great success. The house got cleaned, the move was completed in one afternoon, and everyone went home happy.

Later that week a thank-you card arrived from one of her son’s housemates. “Thanks for the party, Jan. We couldn’t have done it without you.

You’re the greatest. Adam.”

Do we take the time to reflect back on each day or do we just keep moving on? Do we recognize the healing in our lives or focus only on the suffering?

Do we realize that “we couldn’t have done it without” God or do we attribute our successes to good luck or our own hard work? Do we, like Naaman and the Samaritan leper, make it a habit to express our thanks to God in public praise and in lives of service?

Hearing and Doing God’s Word

The people on the bottom of the system-any system-are usually much more ready to hear God’s word. Longing and thirsting for righteousness, they are more ready to stop protecting the status quo and more ready for conversion. After fifteen hundred years in the Western church of trying to preach the gospel primarily to kings, princes, the rich and powerful, the message always seemed to get prostituted. We are beginning to discover that when you preach to the prisoners, to the financially poor, the handicapped, to those who are not the beneficiaries of the system-then you get a much purer response to the gospel. It is not as likely to be used and abused for the purposes of control and power and to support their system and worldview.

Let sleep find you holding your Bible, and when your head nods let it be resting on a sacred page.

The Prayer Request

A businessman needed a million dollars to close an important business deal. He went to church to pray for the money.

As he knelt and started praying, he noticed a man next to him praying for a hundred dollars so he could go to the doctor.

The businessman took out his wallet and pressed a hundred dollar bill into the other's man's hand.

Overjoyed, the man thanked him, got up and left the church.

The businessman then bowed his head, closed his eyes and began praying, "And now, Lord, that I have your full, undivided attention..."
