STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Dear Parishioners,

There is a touching story about a mother's visit to church with her five year old child. As they walked down the aisle, little Christine was drawn to the stained glass windows that were illuminating the entire church with vibrant colors and images of saints in glowing light.

"Mommy," asked Christine, "Who are those people in the windows?"
"They are God's special friends, the Saints," her Mom said. "Here is St. Dominic, over there is St. Therese, next to her is St. Anthony and over there is St. Monica."

After a pause little Christine said, in the wisdom of a child,
"I know what a Saint is, Mommy. A Saint is someone who lets the light shine through."

Left in awe, her mother whispered a silent prayer of thanksgiving for her child's amazing insight. Yes, a Saint is someone who lets the light shine through, the light of God's grace radiating through their lives to you and me and everyone.

On the feast of All Saints, you may want to ask your favorite Saints to help you see more clearly the brilliant light that shines through their lives revealing a special gift that God wants to give you.

On the day after All Saints Day, the Church celebrates All Souls Day when we remember in a special way all who have died, in our families, among your friends, as well as all the faithful departed.

All year long, we remember the names of your deceased loved ones in Mass Intentions. These names, like a Litany of Saints, call us to praise God for the goodness of their lives through which God's light has shone so brightly. Fr. Savoie and I consider it a privilege to remember your loved ones in prayer on this special day, All Souls Day.

The next time you gaze at one of our beautiful stained glass windows, think of that special gift your loved one has manifested through his/her life and see that light shining through to you and me and everyone.

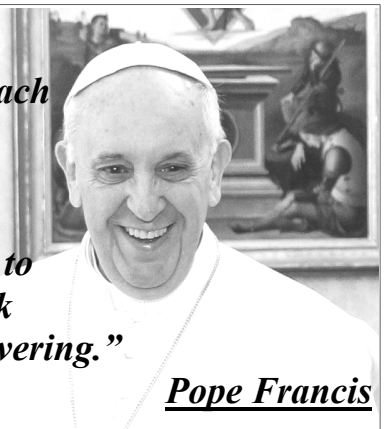

May the light of Christ fill your heart this All Saints Day and always,
Fr. Kendal

A passenger jet was going through a severe thunderstorm.

As the passengers were being bounced around by the turbulence, a young woman turned to a priest sitting next to her and, with a nervous laugh asked, "Father, you're a man of God, can't you do something about this storm?"

To which he replied,

"Lady, I'm in sales, not management."
