Permanent Diaconate Formation

Discerning for something different in your life?
Are you already serving in the parish and feel there might be a calling to more?

Deacon Jim Kincel has informed the priests in the diocese that Bishop Jarrell has authorized a new formation program for the permanent diaconate.

If you think you might have a calling to more ministry and want more information please give Deacon Jim a call at 337-261-5609. He is open to visiting with you over the phone or in person to answer any questions you may have. There is no obligation on your part for commitment to any program. If the Holy Spirit is calling we need to allow the Spirit to speak to us.

Lent is an invitation to journey more deeply into the heart of God. What God asks of Abram is a willingness to trust that God will lead him. Abram is called from the very beginning to place his trust in the Lord and in the Lord's promises. We are told that Abram is seventy years old at the time he goes forth. I remember someone remarking, "Imagine coming in the house and saying to your wife, 'Honey, we have to pack up and go I know not where.'" We are told simply: "Abram went as the LORD directed him" (Genesis 12:4a). Abram's faith translates into trust that God is leading him.

Jesus brought the three apostles up a high mountain. Mountains often served as the meeting place of God and the prophets—Moses and Elijah come to mind. When Jesus and the three reach their destination, Jesus is transformed before them, face and clothes shining. Suddenly Moses and Elijah are talking with him. You can understand Peter wanting to stay there. But this is not journey's end. That will happen on a hill outside Jerusalem. For now they hear words meant also for us this day: "This is my beloved Son . . . listen to him" (Matthew 17:5).

We are asked to journey with Jesus for forty days—sometimes it may be into the desert of testing, sometimes up a mountain for a moment of blinding clarity. In both places we know Jesus as the beloved Son who trusts in the Father's will. Lent invites us to make that same journey into trusting the Father.

—James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R.

*“Caring and protecting demands goodness,
it calls for a certain tenderness.*

In the Gospels,

*St. Joseph appears as a strong and courageous man, a working man,
yet in his heart we see great tenderness,
which is not the virtue of the weak*

but rather a sign of strength of spirit and a capacity for concern, for compassion, for genuine openness to others, for love.

We must not be afraid of goodness, or tenderness.”
