Centennial Campaign: Building Our Future Together

On the threshold of our Centennial Celebration in 2018, we at St. Joseph Catholic Church join together with our fellow Catholics throughout the Acadiana area to meet the needs of our parishioners and faith community through our Diocesan-wide campaign effort.

Today, we here at St. Joseph are launching our campaign in support of the Centennial Campaign: *Building Our Future Together. Over the next several weeks we look to raise a minimum of $690,000 to help fund the focus areas and projects illustrated below. Your support in this historic effort will build on our legacy as a devout and generous community, energizing our Diocese to serve and evangelize future generations. During this time, we ask you to consider three things:

1. Pray for the success of the campaign and our efforts at St. Joseph
2. Welcome contact from your fellow parishioners to discuss the campaign
3. Prayerfully consider your own sacrificial gift to the campaign

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Sanctuary Lamp
burns constantly to proclaim the real presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Tabernacle.
This week we dedicate the flame to:
Anatole Gary family,
Vernice Sonnier family and
Wilson & Laura A. Meaux family

Vatican City, April 30th.
Reconciliation is an essential aspect of God's mercy, Pope Francis said, explaining that when we distance ourselves from the Lord through sin, it takes much more than our own effort to get back to him.
Referencing St. Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians, Pope Francis urged all members of the Church to "let yourselves be reconciled with God.
The cry of the apostle Paul addressed to the first Christians of Corinth is valid for us today, with the same strength and conviction," he said, explaining that the ongoing Jubilee of Mercy is a time of reconciliation for everyone.
"God never considers the possibility that a person remains estranged from his love, provided, however, that he finds in them some sign of repentance for the harm done," he said, adding that "we can't reconcile with God with our own efforts."
Many people would like to reconcile with God, but either don't know how, don't feel worthy or "don't want to admit it even to themselves," he said, but affirmed that the Christian community "can and must support the sincere return to God of those who feel his nostalgia."

The Pietà Lamp
Mother of Sorrow, You who held Jesus in your arms, please intercede with your Divine Son on behalf of:
Conrad Mouton and the LaCombe family
