FLASH FLOOD DAMAGES ST. JOSEPH ABBEY & SEMINARY COLLEGE

On March 11th a flash flood brought nearly two feet of water into the buildings of St. Joseph Abbey and Seminary College in Covington. Every vehicle on the campus was flooded including our own seminarian Matthew Gossen's car. It caused an estimated $3 million in damage. The Bishops of Louisiana have asked every parish to take up a second collection to help with the recovery. That collection will be taken here at St. Joseph's next weekend (May 28th & 29th). Please be generous.

We give thanks to the Lord for you on this the day of your birth and always. Making mention of you in our prayers, remembering your works of faith, labors of love and dedication to our Lord Jesus.

The Sanctuary Lamp

burns constantly to proclaim the real presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Tabernacle.

This week we dedicate the flame to:

Hazel Prevost,
Edward Simon and all deceased parishioners of St. Joseph Parish

Vatican City, May 8, 2016
 Pope Francis commemorated the Feast of the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven by reminding the faithful of their duty to be witnesses of the Gospel every day of the week, in all areas of life – and not just on Sundays.

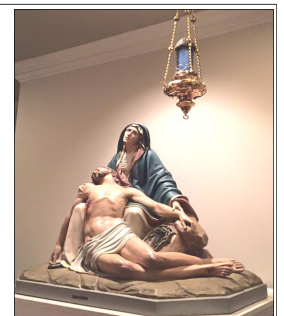

“We must carry this witness every week: Christ is with us; Christ has gone up into Heaven, and is with us; Christ is alive!” Citing the words of Jesus in the day's Gospel taken from Luke, the pontiff explained how the Apostles were “witnesses” of Christ's death, resurrection, and now Ascension; indeed, they returned to Jerusalem and joyfully testified about the risen Christ, in whose name they would preach conversion and “repentance, for the forgiveness of sins.”

This witness – “made not only with words but also with daily life” – should go beyond Church on Sunday. Rather, it should extend throughout the entire week in our “homes, offices, schools, in places of entertainment, in hospitals, in prisons, in homes for the elderly, in places crowded with immigrants, in the city's peripheries.”

“We contemplate the mystery of Jesus who left our earthly space in order to enter in the fullness of God's glory, bringing with him our humanity,” the Pope said.
