Daily Manna Needs Volunteers

Looking for a meaningful way to spend some of your spare time?

Maybe we have just the thing that will lighten and warm your heart.

The Daily Manna Christian Service Center at 600 Section Street in Rayne is in need of volunteers at the Center. It is not hard work, but is very gratifying work. Doesn't have to be every day or all day - just a few hours a week would be great to give of your time to this ministry. On Monday's (Center is closed to the public) all the things donated over the weekend are sorted and organized - very simple. There are LOTS of bags to sort! On Tuesdays and Thursdays the Center is open to the public. You may help customers and/or continue to organize items. No set days or hours - you work when you feel a need to.

Please consider volunteering to help the needy of our community.

- Deacon Tommy

Treasures From Tradition

Apart from the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas, the summer is a favored time for family reunions. We trace family trees and recall our origins. Worship has a family tree as well, and the way we celebrate today has been influenced by various styles and customs through the centuries. We are Western Christians of the Latin Rite. By far, we are the most numerous Western Christians, but there are other ritual families as well. The Archdiocese of Milan in Italy follows the Ambrosian Rite, Toledo in Spain preserves the Mozarabic Rite and the Arab language, and Lyons in France is home to the Gallican Rite. Other liturgical families, such as the Celtic in Ireland and the Sarum in England, faded away after the Reformation. Until recent times, members of some ancient religious orders such as Carmelites and Trappists followed a pattern of Mass that varied slightly from the plan observed in Latin Rite parishes.

Isn't the Catholic Church the same everywhere? Not at all. It never has been! The existence of so many liturgical families in the West reminds us that unity, not uniformity, is what the Church seeks to achieve among her children. We are united in faith, but wonderfully diverse in rituals, ceremonies, languages, customs, and spirituality.

Vestment Memorial

I am very grateful to the many parishioners who responded generously to my request to sponsor new matching Mass vestments. They were all donated in a short amount of time. The deacon vestments are on back order. But we should be able to start using the matching sets at weekend Masses by November. May God bless your generosity and receive into his fullness those memorialized. Individual donors and intentions will be posted in the vestment closet in the sacristy of church.

Pray For Priests and Seminarians

Eternal Father,

We lift up to You these and all the priests and seminarians of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray.

- Amen
