Consecrate Yourself to St. Joseph

In this Year of St. Joseph for our diocese, now is the perfect time for men and women to consecrate themselves to St. Joseph, our principal Spiritual Father and Patron Saint of the Universal Church. A perfect tool for this consecration is the recent book authored by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, which provides a 33-day consecration program. Our own St. Joseph Parish is encouraging that parishioners begin on November 6 in order to make the consecration on December 8, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.

The parish is also hoping that parishioners make their consecration in small groups. Here are some small group leaders in our parish for you to consider joining:
Fred and Annette Gossen (Grand Reserve Group);
Barry and Jamie Prevost (Select Reserve Group);
Matt and Tori Gossen (Reserve Group);
Fr. Ben Pitre (Men's Group).

The "Reserve" groups are open to both couples and singles. If you are interested in joining one of the above groups, contact the parish office. Other groups may be forming as well, so ask around! St. Joseph, pray for us and our parish!

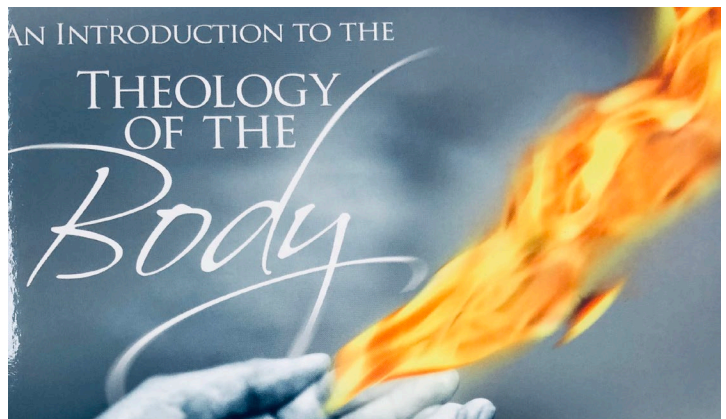

Advent Books

The books for Daily reflections for the Advent & Christmas season are now available and can be found on usher tables in church or purchased at the parish office. Donations are $1.00 while supplies last.

Memorial Mass

Monday, November 2, 2020 @ 5:00pm the Catholic Daughters are sponsoring a memorial mass for deceased members and a reception following the mass at the Family Life Center. All ministries of St. Joseph Church Parish are welcomed to attend. Included this year are Father Bill Ruskowski, Father Kendall Faulk and Deacon Dan Besse.

Theology of the Body

During his pontificate, Pope St. John Paul II left the Church a marvelous reflection on the nature of human love, which has not only spiritual dimensions but physical, as well. Indeed, the human person is a profound unity of both soul and body. Our own St. Joseph Parish is happy to announce a 4-part introductory series on this "Theology of the Body" as JP II titled it.

Mrs. Adele Guillot, who possesses a masters degree in theology from Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans and who is also known as the "Cajun Catechist" (cajuncatechist.com), will be presenting in our parish for 4 consecutive Thursday evenings starting on Oct 29 and ending on Nov 19. Each presentation is from 6-8pm in the Family Life Center.

The presentations are free of charge and open to adult parishioners. Teaching materials will be provided by Mrs. Adele. However, if one desires, the workbook to be used may be purchased at any time from ascensionpress.com (search for "An Introduction to the Theology of the Body"), which will also grant personal access to the important video content, as well.

Love Life Amendment

The Louisiana Conference of Catholic Bishops strongly supports the Love Life Amendment, which would successfully amend the Louisiana constitution and thereby continue to strengthen our commitment to end abortion in our state. Citizens of our state will have the opportunity to affirmatively state that they "Love Life" on November 3—the same day as the United States presidential election—by favoring this amendment.

As Catholics, we are called to ensure that life is indeed valued and that the dignity of all is upheld. This is the foundational principle of our social teaching and must be intentionally considered in all that we do.

Passage of the Love Life Amendment would have a dual effect. Primarily, it will ensure that the state of Louisiana cannot establish a right to abortion at present or if Roe v. Wade is overturned in the future. Secondly, it will prohibit the funding of abortion through tax payer dollars within our constitution. Without such an amendment, the invalidation of the many anti-abortion laws we have all advocated so strongly for in Louisiana remains a possibility.

The Louisiana Conference of Catholic bishops therefore enthusiastically supports the Love Life Amendment, and encourages all to approach this initiative with a formed conscience and a commitment to defend the sanctity of human life and uphold the dignity of all people.

Year of St. Joseph Devotionals

In keeping with the Year of St. Joseph, we as a parish will participate in a 33 day Consecration to St. Joseph starting Nov. 6th and ending with the consecration on Dec. 8th – the feast of the Immaculate Conception. In preparation for the consecration, we are asking interested parishioners to purchase the book “Consecration to St. Joseph” by Fr. Donald Calloway. The book can be purchased through various online resources.

The Litany of St. Joseph, one of only six approved by the Church for public as well as private use, sums up qualities that made Joseph such an important part of the Holy Family. The Litany is prayed each day of the Consecration:
