Year of St. Joseph Devotionals

Why is St. Joseph such an important Saint during the Christmas Season?

Adapted from an article written by Fr. Dwight Longenecker found on “Those Catholic Men” website.

St. Joseph is given to us as the model husband and father. His primary virtue is faithfulness, and from that faithfulness comes every other virtue that he displays.

In Matthew’s gospel St. Joseph is described as “a just man”. In other words, Joseph submitted himself to the higher law of God, and it was this essential obedience to God and faithfulness to God’s will that was the bedrock of his life.

As the foster father of Jesus, St. Joseph’s faithfulness produced a list of other virtues, but there are three that we see in the Christmas stories which are especially necessary for men who wish to walk in his footsteps.

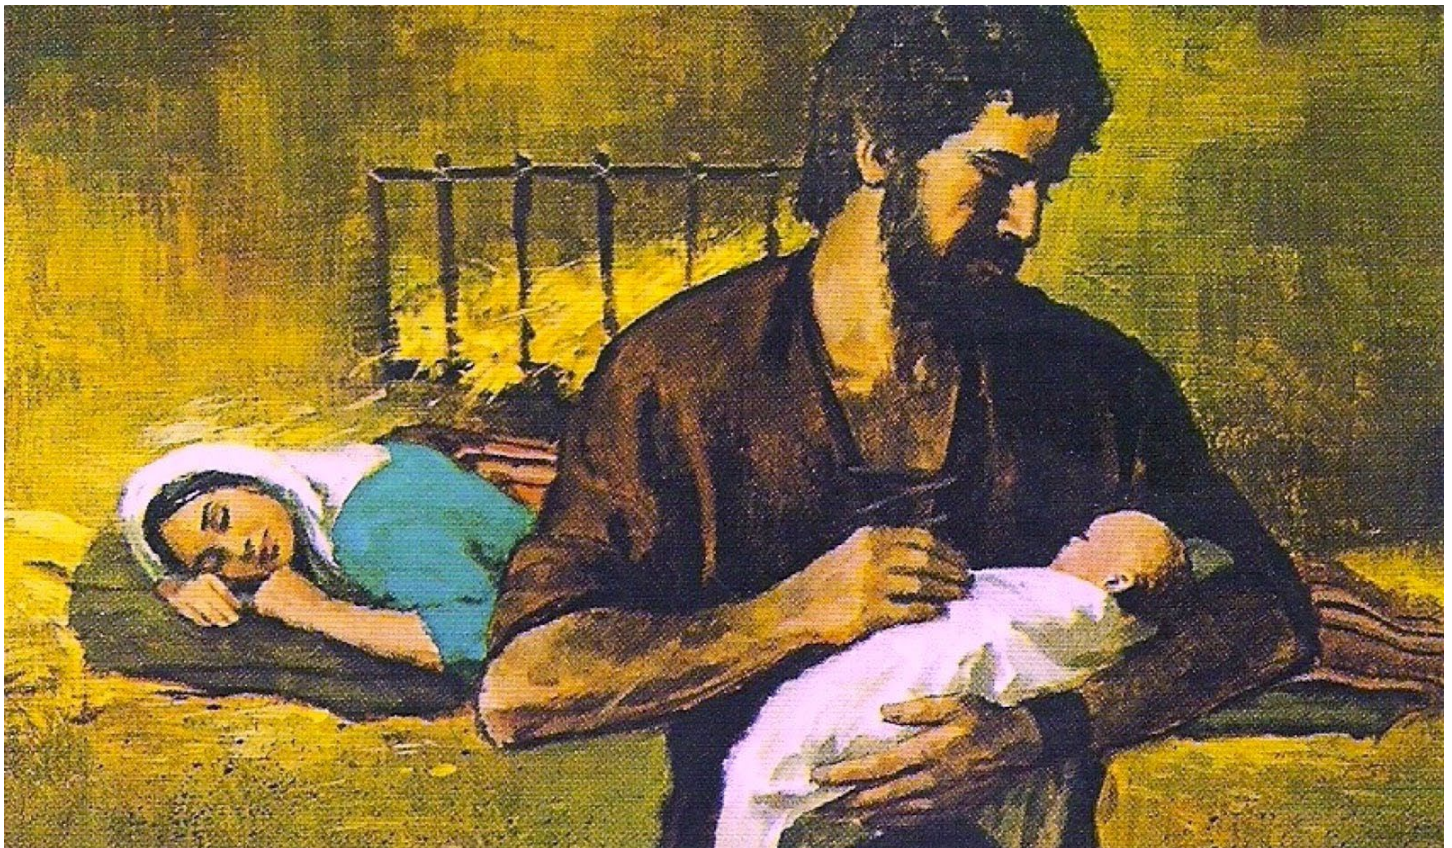

1. Purity – The first virtue that springs from St. Joseph’s faithfulness was purity. Purity which is passive and weak is not a masculine virtue. Instead true purity is powerful. Purity rooted in faithfulness to God’s will and God’s way displays a fully mature and integrated sexuality.

2. Patience – The second virtue that grows from St. Joseph’s faithfulness is patience. St. Joseph comes across as the strong, silent type. He watches and waits. He observes the situation carefully. He is able to stop, look and listen. He does not react impulsively, but holds back, so that he can move carefully at the right time after gathering all the facts. Joseph’s patience grows from faithfulness because his whole life has been rooted in the law of God.

3. Prudence – The third virtue that emerges from St. Joseph’s bedrock of faithfulness is prudence. Prudence is the wise and careful discernment that enables us to choose the right path. Joseph’s virtue of prudence is rooted in his faithfulness because it is his deep trust in God’s providence which empowers him to take risks and make right choices knowing that God is ultimately in charge.

The Christmas story is wonderful not only because it is loaded with supernatural elements like a miraculous birth, angels and guiding stars, but because it is also full of the extraordinary strengths of ordinary people like St. Joseph.

Christmas festivities are therefore an opportunity not only to celebrate food, family and friends, but also to re-set our priorities and determine once again that we will build on the bedrock of Christ, and like St. Joseph, ensure that our whole lives revolve around the child in the manger.
