Year of St. Joseph Devotionals

Daily devotions to St. Joseph

by St. Alphonsus Liguori:

Great, indeed, will be the comfort of those, who, at the hour of death shall be protected by St. Joseph. For this great saint has received from God power to command the devils and to drive them away, lest they tempt his servants in their dying moments. Happy is the soul that shall be assisted by this great advocate, who, on account of having died with the assistance of Jesus and Mary, and because of having preserved the infant Jesus from the danger of death by his flight into Egypt, has received the privilege of being the patron of a good death, and of delivering his clients from the danger of eternal death.

Prayer intention: St. Joseph, defend me from the attacks of the devils at the last moment of my life.
